HARSH

Is there a view more beautiful than the one created by nature? With all her spontaneity, uniqueness and her own plan for that, which is perfect, nature is a constant inspiration for those who seek solace in her soothing embrace. Stoic calmness of rocks, firm decisiveness – that is the Harsh collection at first glance, but as the first rays of the morning sun begin to unveil what's hidden beneath that cool exterior, you will begin to discover its deep design structure. Strength enclosed in the delicacy of hues – do you also believe that opposites attract?
